Céad míle fáilte

on the edge of
Lough Atalia

Galway Bay.

We are only a few minutes' walk to Galway city centre and the main railway & bus stations and just a 15 minute transfer from Galway Airport or a 2 hour drive from Dublin.

There is a certain chemistry and vibrancy to this friendly university city which many delight in, and few forget. Music, festivals, horse racing, pubs, restaurants, shops, theatres and the Galway people, combine to create an atmospheric medieval city of culture. Renowned worldwide for its famous bay, its Claddagh ring and its use of the Irish language, Galway is often referred to as the 'Bilingual Capital of Ireland'.

Galway's narrow cobbled streets, stone walls, carved windows and doorways vie for position with modern shops, bars & restaurants giving the city an interesting, cosmopolitan ambience.

Each summer Galway bursts into life with a colourful Arts Festival, two international Oyster Festivals, Film Fleadh and the hugely popular Galway Races. Galway also has world class golf courses, tennis courts, horseback riding, fishing, sailing, cycling and walking activities.
